

Tranquil Wisdom Insight Meditation Retreat

Detailed Information and Practice Schedule

Arrival and Departure:

Plan to arrive at St. Francis Retreat Center between 3:00 and 4:30 pm on opening day. Parking is available next to the Lower Retreat Building where the main group gatherings will be held. Please do not arrive or enter the grounds of the Center earlier than 3:00 PM.

The retreat will end after the morning meditation and breakfast on the last day of the retreat. There will be time to socialize and pack following breakfast.

Registration and Orientation:

On-site check-in and room assignments will take place from 3:00-4:30 PM.

A light dinner will be offered at 5:00 in the dining room, followed by a group orientation at 5:30. At 6:15 PM, the retreat will begin with opening comments and a dhamma talk by Bhante.

What to Wear:

The weather in San Juan Bautista in April is typically dry with warm, sunny days and cool, clear nights. The average daytime temperature is 73°F (22°C). Nighttime average low temperature is 44°F (7°C). There is usually very little rain in April.

Bring comfortable, loose-fitting clothes, such as sweat pants with elastic waistband. Be prepared with layers that can be added or removed. Light clothing is recommended for warm, sunny daytime weather. A warm jacket is needed for cool nights and evening walking meditation. Comfortable slip-on shoes are appropriate for walking around the compound. Headgear, such as a hat with a brim, and sunglasses are handy for bright sunny days. House-slippers and warm socks are appropriate in the meditation hall. Bring a shawl or small blanket for outdoor, seated meditations in the gardens and patio areas.

What to Bring for Meditation:

Chairs for sitting will be provided in the meditation hall. You may wish to bring your own special chair, if desired, along with meditation cushions or pillows.

If you live locally, please bring a few extra cushions for out of state guests who traveled by air and cannot carry these items with them.

Other Necessities to Bring:

Bed linens, blankets, and towels are provided by the center. You may want to bring a special personal pillow or blanket, if desired. Bring personal toiletries (toothpaste, bath soap, sunscreen, Kleenex, etc), insect repellent if desired, flashlight or headlamp and extra batteries, an alarm clock or watch with an alarm, and a water bottle to be filled at the center with filtered water as needed. There will be wake up and notification bell to announce meals and group gatherings.

What to Leave at Home:

Do not bring valuables, nonprescription drugs or alcohol. Do not bring food unless you have made prior arrangements with the retreat manager for medically required special dietary needs.

Avoid using scented cosmetics or perfumes that may be allergenic to others. Reading and writing are discouraged during this training period, except during the evening dhamma talks by Bhante. Candles, incense, and smoking are not allowed in any rooms.
